For further study:

- Monday: Read Habakkuk 1. Are there situations in your life that seem unfair to you? Who do you complain to?
- Tuesday: Read Habakkuk 2. When life seems unfair, how confident are you that God is aware of what you're experiencing?
- Wednesday: Read Habakkuk 3. When life seems unfair, what do you pray for? Do you trust God to answer your prayers? Do you believe that he truly cares for you?
- Thursday: Read Psalm 7.1, 86.1, and 90.1. To whom do you turn—friends, family, or social media—when life feels stacked against you? How can you practically seek refuge in the Lord during those times?
- Friday: Read Psalm 27.1–14. What do you fear in life? In this psalm, how does David remind himself that, if God is for him, nothing can stand against him?
- Saturday: Read Psalm 4.1–8. One evidence of David's confidence in the Lord is in his ability to sleep peacefully at night. What is a sign (or signs) you've seen in your own life that testify to your confidence in the Lord?
