

WHERE,

WHAT,

WHY?

Where, What, Why?

Palm Sunday

Kevin Goldsmith

A. Bethpage (Mark 11.1–7; Matthew 21.1–7)

B. Mount of Olives (Matthew 21.8–11; Luke 19.39–44)

C. Temple in Jerusalem (Mark 11.10–11)

Notes:

Join us as we seek to engage the world around us for the sake of the Gospel with these simple steps:

January- Read Questioning Evangelism by Randy Newman

February- Pray for your neighbors and coworkers

March- Meet your neighbors and coworkers

For further study:

- Monday: Read Matthew 21.18–22. During this trying time does your actions feel fruitful? Are they more fueled by faith or less?
- Tuesday: Read Matthew 23.37–39. How do you relate to God when praying for those you know are far from the Lord?
- Wednesday: Read Matthew 26.1–5, 14–16; 27.24–26, 35–36. Do you feel this time is an opportunity to view things of God more clearly, or are you passing time?
- Thursday: Read Matthew 26.17–29. Is it hard to understand what Jesus is doing in your life? Does this matter when it comes to trusting him?
- Friday: Read Matthew 27.11–56. Are you asking for God to act according to His will in your prayers or your will?
- Saturday: Read Matthew 27.57–66. Notice how even those opposing Jesus knew what he taught. Do you understand more about Jesus and what he promises than your actions reflect?